

6TH APRU SENIOR STAFF MEETING

2 Latest Developments from National Taiwan University

Presented by Professor Tung Shen
Dean, Office of International Affairs
National Taiwan University

Office of International Affairs

OUTLINE

④ DEVELOPMENT 1:

European Union Centre in Taiwan (EUTW)

④ DEVELOPMENT 2:

“Making a Difference in Fighting against Cancer”—Foxconn’s Yong-ling Health Foundation made TWD 15 billion donation to National Taiwan University

EUROPEAN UNION CENTRE IN TAIWAN (EUTW)

- Inter-University Consortium of Taiwan:
 - NTU (Lead University)

7 Universities in Taiwan, representing more than 120,000 students and 5,000 faculty members from the north, central, south and east Taiwan

- National Sun Yat Sen University
- National Dong Hwa University

EUTW

- EUTW: Inauguration in May 2009
- Headquarter in NTU
- Fourth EU center in East Asia, after Japan, South Korea and Singapore.
- 2009-2012: approx. budget €1,509,360

EUTW

- Goals: establish EU Study Area in libraries, ‘EU Policy Forum’, EUTW fellowship and scholarship, international symposiums and conferences on EU, EUTW website, summer school on EU study, EU study programs, national workshop on EU policy...
- CALL FOR COLLABORATION to other EU Centers

“MAKING A DIFFERENCE IN FIGHTING AGAINST CANCER”

NTU Cancer Hospital (envisioned)

“MAKING A DIFFERENCE IN FIGHTING AGAINST CANCER”

4 Guiding Principles for the NTU Cancer Hospital

- Provide patient-centered services
- Center planning around diseases
- Establish an open platform
- Strengthen international cooperation

THANK YOU

National Taiwan University

臺灣大學