

What is the University Administrators Workshop?

- opening a cooperative stage for university international offices on the west side of the Pacific Rim

Point 1: A new era of the intermediary

Point 2: Supports from the other sides of the Pacific Rim are indispensable!

By Toshio Yokoyama, Kyoto University

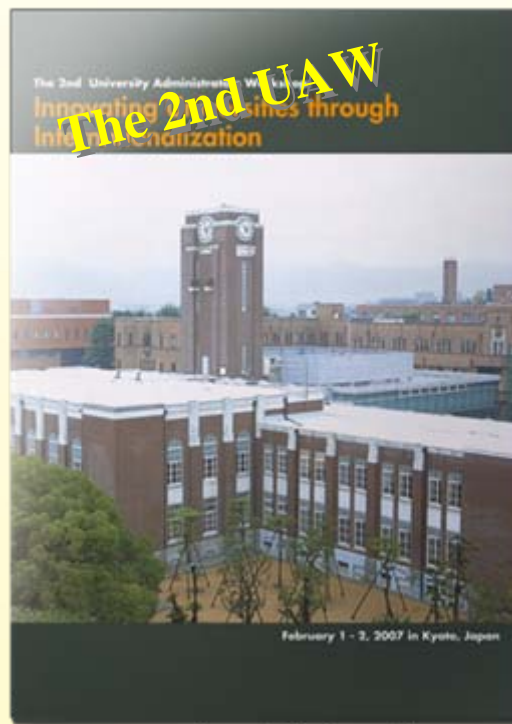

The University Administrators Workshop

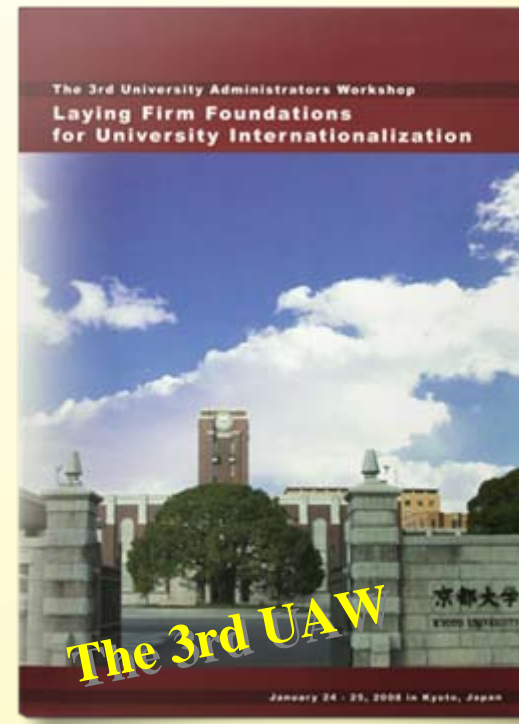

Enhancing the Quality of International Activities of Asian Universities

Innovating Universities through Internationalization

Laying Firm Foundations for University Internationalization

Reports Published, 2006-2008 & The 4th in preparation, 2009

The University Administrators Workshop

The 1st: 2006: JOY TO SPEAK OUT

The 2nd: 2007: DISCOVERING A COMMON DIFFICULTY

The 3rd: 2008:
UNDERSTANDING EACH INTERNATIONAL OFFICE'S DISTINCT CHARACTERISTICS

The 4th: 2009: PROFESSIONALS' COMMON PLATFORM >>> a unique group of *intermediaries

The University Administrators Workshop

Support 1: Guest Speakers

“Really?!”

“UC Davis wants an International Center.”

◀ The 2nd UAW

Guest Speaker: Prof. William B. Lacy, UC Davis Vice-Provost, (right) with Toshio Yokoyama, KU's Vice-President, being astonished by Bill's words (left)

The 3rd UAW ▶

Guest Speaker: Ms. Elizabeth A Baré, Vice-Principal and Head of University Services, the University of Melbourne, speaking about the eventful process of internationalization of UM's campuses

“We can no longer rely on the government for...”

The University Administrators Workshop

Support 2: Guest Speaker

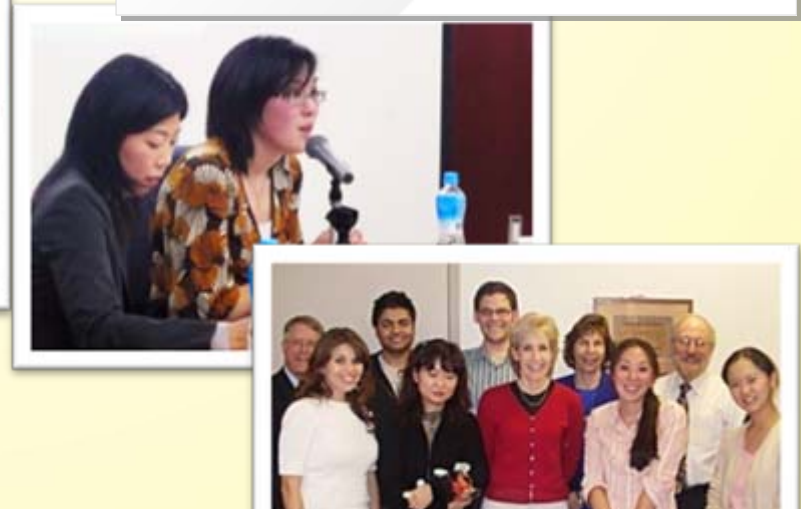

▲ The 4th UAW

Trying hard to explain the administrative structure of his university. Guest Speaker: Mr. Markus Laitinen, Head of International Affairs, the University of Helsinki

Support 3: A parallel project on a small scale: Kyoto U-UC Davis Administrative Staff Exchange Program

Ms. Kristy HIROKAWA (right)
Oct.- Nov. 2007

Ms. Miyoko HATASAKO (second left, front row) Oct. – Dec. 2006

The University Administrators Workshop - towards the era of the intermediary -

From the 3rd UAW session

Carefully convened, making everyone's mouth open —

Prof. LOH Hong Sai, Faculty of Dentistry,
Acting Director of the International Relations
Office, NUS

And,
doing old Kyoto together!

The 3rd: at Kiyomizu Temple

From the 4th UAW session

Ready to act as an intermediary —

Mr. Ainslie KERR, MA Edinburgh (standing left),
International Coordinator, Kyoto University

The 4th: at Kinkakuji Temple