

Meeting Program

As of Mar 11, 2009

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 18

Venues: Stamford Plaza Melbourne, 111 Little Collins Street, Melbourne
Melbourne Business School, 200 Leicester Street, Carlton, University of Melbourne

- | | |
|--------|---|
| AM | Registration of Delegates
Registration on arrival and check-in at Lobby of Stamford Plaza Melbourne |
| 2:00pm | Welcome Session for New Senior Staff (by invitation only)
Venue: Edinburgh Room, Level 1, West Tower, Stamford Plaza Melbourne |
| 2:30pm | Delegates to meet at Lobby of Stamford Plaza Melbourne |
| 2:40pm | Depart Hotel for Melbourne Business School, University of Melbourne |

APRU Senior Staff Forum 2009:

Changing Trends in Higher Education in the Pacific Rim: Realities and Opportunities

Venue: Coles Theatre

- | | |
|--------|---|
| 3:00pm | Welcome by Professor Glyn Davis, Vice-Chancellor, University of Melbourne |
| 3:10pm | Welcome by APRU Secretary General, Professor Kenneth J. McGillivray |
| 3:20pm | Open Panel Session: "The Asia Pacific Higher Education Market" Moderator:
Professor Frank Larkins, Professor Emeritus, University of Melbourne Speakers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Professor Christopher Findlay, Head of School of Economics, University of Adelaide - Dr Philippa Dee, Visiting Fellow at the Crawford School of Economics and Government, Australian National University - Professor Leslyanne Hawthorne, Associate Dean International, University of Melbourne Invited speakers from Pacific Economic Cooperation Council (PECC) and APRU will speak about trends in the Asia Pacific higher education market, and their implications on policy decisions, funding and resource allocation. The session follows a recent joint study conducted by both APRU and PECC on higher education. Question and Answer [15min] |
| 4:30pm | Student and Faculty Panel Session Moderator:
Dr Christopher Tremewan, Vice-President (International), University of Auckland |

Speakers:

- Professor David Beckett, Assistant Dean (Research Training), Melbourne Graduate School of Education and Associate Dean (International), School of Graduate Research, University of Melbourne
- Ms Sarah Quek, President, Melbourne University Overseas Student Society (MUOSS), University of Melbourne
- Mr Anwar Shah, International Students Officer, Graduate Student Association, University of Melbourne

Are internationalization policies and practices delivering more opportunities for students? Will the current financial climate cause universities to re-think their commitment to international activities? As trends change, what will work and what needs to be modified to ensure that students receive international exposure to help them develop as future global citizens? What recommendations do students have for university and government administrators to address future trends and realities for the funding and quality assurance of international activities?

Question and Answer [15min]

5:45pm

Cocktails before Dinner

Venue: Courtyard, Melbourne Business School

6:15pm

Welcome Dinner (Buffet)

Venue: Gadsden Dining Room, Melbourne Business School

7:45pm

Depart Melbourne Business School for Hotel

THURSDAY, MARCH 19

Venue: Melbourne Business School, 200 Leicester Street, Carlton, University of Melbourne

8:20am

Delegates to meet at Lobby of Stamford Plaza Melbourne

8:30am

Depart Hotel for Melbourne Business School, University of Melbourne

9:00am

Keynote Speech by Senator the Hon Kim Carr, Minister for Innovation, Industry, Science and Research

Venue: Coles Theatre

9:50am

Group Photo followed by Tea Break

10:30am

Panel Session: "The Global Financial Crisis and Its Impact on International Higher Education"

Venue: Coles Theatre

Moderator:

Dr Enrique Zepeda, Vice-President for Internationalization, Tecnológico de Monterrey

Speakers:

- Professor Adam C. Powell III, Vice Provost for Globalization, University of Southern California

6th Senior Staff Meeting ■ March 18-20, 2009 ■ University of Melbourne

- Professor Tatsuya Sakamoto, Vice-President for International Collaboration and Education, Keio University
- Professor Tony Adams, Immediate Past President, International Education Association of Australia (IEAA)
- Associate Professor Mark Crosby, Melbourne Business School, University of Melbourne

Expert speakers from external organizations will be invited to give Australian and regional perspectives on the impact of the global financial crisis on higher education. As the crisis may affect the Asia Pacific region in the next 6 to 9 months, discussions on how student and faculty mobility could be affected will be relevant to members in terms of enrolment and market trends.

Question and Answer [15min]

Noon	Lunch (buffet)
1:30pm	Breakout Discussion Sessions (Concurrent) Venues: Grattan Theatre, Amcor Theatre, MLR1 and MLR2 Participants will be grouped into 4 or more groups of about 10-15 persons each based on their topic preferences. Senior Staff leaders will be selected in advance to moderate and lead the groups in discussion. Discussion questions and guidelines will be given to participants and leaders prior to the meeting. Discussion topics are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - International student recruitment: competition vs. collaboration - Curriculum innovation for student mobility and research - International development strategies and funding - Policies on internationalization: national and regional responses
3:15pm	Break
3:30pm	Summary of Breakout Discussions Venue: Coles Theatre Senior Staff leaders or group representatives will report back to the main meeting on what they have discussed earlier within their groups. This could include proposed working models or ideas raised with regard to issues in their respective topics.
5:00pm	End of Forum and Return to Hotel
6:30pm	Delegates to meet at Lobby of Stamford Plaza Melbourne
6:40pm	Depart Hotel for Dinner at Melbourne Museum
7:00pm	Dinner hosted by Vice-Chancellor, University of Melbourne Venue: Melbourne Museum, Nicholson Street, Carlton
10:00pm	Depart Melbourne Museum for Hotel

FRIDAY, MARCH 20

Venue: Woodward Conference Centre, Level 10, Law Building, 185 Pelham Street, Carlton, University of Melbourne

- 8:20am Delegates to meet at Lobby of Stamford Plaza Melbourne
- 8:30am Depart Hotel for Woodward Conference Centre, University of Melbourne
- 9:00am Briefing on APRU Activities 2008
Professor Kenneth McGillivray, APRU Secretary General
- Upcoming APRU Activities 2009
- Research-centric Activities:
- 9:15am - Research Symposium on Earthquakes and Tsunamis 2009 [10min]
Professor Shen Tung, Dean, International Office, National Taiwan University
- 9:25am - APRU World Institute [40min]
Professor Richard Drobnick, AWI Managing Director
Professor Jim Falk, AWI Climate Change Director, University of Melbourne
- Student-centric Activities:
- 10:05am - Doctoral Students Conference 2009 [10min]
Professor Toshio Yokoyama, Vice-President for International Relations, Kyoto University
- 10:15am - APRU Undergraduate Summer Program 2009 [10min]
Associate Professor Anne Pakir, Director, International Relations Office, National University of Singapore
- 10.25am - Keio University Summer School at University of Washington 2009 [10min]
Professor Shinnosuke Obi, Director, International Centre, Keio University
- 10:35am Break
- Upcoming APRU Activities 2009 (cont'd)
- Human Resource Development Activities:
- 10:50am - Report of Distance Learning and the Internet Review Committee on Chief Information Officers (CIO) Forum (formerly CIO Network and Conference) and Education and Research Technology Forum (formerly Distance Learning and the Internet Conference)
Dr Donald Harris, Vice Provost and Chief Information Officer, University of Oregon
- 11:10am - Deans Meetings 2009 [10min]
- APRU Annual Meetings
- 11:20am - Annual Presidents Meeting 2009 [5min]

6th Senior Staff Meeting ■ March 18-20, 2009 ■ University of Melbourne

- 11:25am - Senior Staff Meeting 2010 [15min]
Professor Tatsuya Sakamoto, Vice-President for International Collaboration and Education, Keio University
- 11:40am Lunch (buffet)
- 1:00pm Aloud Forum
The Aloud Forum aims to provide a platform for members to share information on latest developments at their universities. It also gives members an opportunity to seek partners for collaborative intents and purposes. Senior Staff representatives will be asked to share briefly on their respective universities' top 2 projects/collaborative interests.
- 2:45pm APRU Ahead: Evaluation of Activities and Programs
- Senior Staff Advisory Committee
- Provost Forum
- Reinstatement of the APRU Fellows Program
- Launch of new APRU website
- 3:45pm Conclusion and Wrap-Up Session
- 4:00pm Closing Tea Reception

SATURDAY, MARCH 21

Optional Tour and Activities (Please liaise with staff at the Stamford Plaza Melbourne for full details)

- Half-day city tour; OR
- Full day Great Ocean Road tour